Call for Papers: Workshop on International Economic Networks (WIEN)
University of Vienna
July 6-7, 2018

Organizers: Pol Antràs (Harvard) and Alejandro Cuñat (Vienna)

Confirmed Keynote Speakers: Stephen Redding (Princeton) and Dave Donaldson (MIT)

The University of Vienna and the Vienna Institute for International Economics Studies (wiiw) will host a two-day meeting that will draw together researchers interested in international economics, global production networks and economic geography. To be considered for inclusion on the program, papers must be submitted in PDF format to Alejandro Cunat (alejandro.cunat@univie.ac.at) by Friday, February 16th 2018. Authors chosen to present papers at the conference will be notified in late February.

The workshop will take place at the Sky-lounge of the University of Vienna's Faculty of Business, Economics and Statistics, overlooking the city center. Speakers will be provided with accommodation in central Vienna. Airfares for speakers with funding needs will also be reimbursed subject to budget availability. (Please indicate in your submission whether you would require such funding.)

The workshop is an activity of the Forschungsschwerpunkt Internationale Wirtschaft (FIW) in cooperation with the Vienna University of Economics and Business (WU), the University Vienna and the Johannes Kepler University Linz. The 'center of excellence' FIW (<http://www.fiw.ac.at/>) is a project of WIFO, wiiw and WSR on behalf of the BMWFW. The FIW cooperation with the universities is supported by the former Federal Ministry of Science and Research (now integrated in the Federal Ministry of Science, Research and Economy, BMWFW).
